Melissa Rickerd
Senior Test Engineer

Dynamic and results-oriented professional with a background in software testing and a passion for data science. Currently pursuing education in Data Science, equipped with proficiency in R and a commitment to rapid skill acquisition. Demonstrated ability to establish test environments, execute test activities, and provide strong leadership. Eager to leverage analytical skills and testing experience to drive impactful insights in the field of data science.

Current position

Senior Test engineer
Lionbridge Canada
January 2023 - Present

- Established and verified test environments for software products.
- Planned, organized, and executed comprehensive test activities to ensure product quality.
- Implemented, verified, and validated test data to support testing processes.
- Produced detailed reports and documentation to communicate testing outcomes.
- Demonstrated strong leadership skills by effectively leading testing teams.
- Applied in-depth knowledge of testing methodologies, tools, and best practices to drive testing excellence.

Skills

- Proficient in R programming language.
- Strong analytical and problem-solving skills.
- Experience in establishing and verifying test environments.
- Expertise in planning, organizing, and executing test activities.
- Implementation, verification, and validation of test data.
- Proficient in reports and documentation writing.
- Leadership skills with a focus on collaboration and team management.
- Familiarity with testing methodologies, tools, and best practices.
- Solid understanding of statistical analysis and machine learning algorithms.
- Quick learner with a passion for continuous skill development.

Education

| | |
|---|---|
| Current | Data Science / Computer Science bachelor's degree |
| 03/2023 | Software Quality Assurance Specialist |

Language

French → Fluent / English → Fluent

Language